How will we look after your insurance needs?

Our Financial Advisers work for you.

As a Financial Adviser, it is our duty to abide by the Code of Conduct for Financial Service Providers.

Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited is paid by the providers for the services our Financial Advisers provide, however, it is you that we work for.

To ensure your interests are put ahead of ours, our Advisers follow a 6-step advice process when providing personalised financial advice which is based on your individual goals and needs. Recommendations made to you are provided in writing so that you have the opportunity to ask any questions you might have before implementing our advice.

Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited, and anyone who gives financial advice on our behalf, has duties under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 relating to the way that we give advice.

Our Services

Our Financial Advisers provide personalised advice that takes into account your individual circumstances to determine the personal risk products that best meet your personal goals and needs.

Our recommendations are limited to the products offered by the following companies:

AIA, Asteron, Chubb, Fidelity, NIB, Partners Life, Southern Cross

What fees and commissions are payable for services?

To ensure that advice remains accessible, Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited does not charge an upfront fee for providing personal risk insurance advice or for implementing advice if you decide to proceed.

In place of an upfront fee, Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited is paid a commission for any new insurance taken up, of between 30% and 240% of the first year's premium, depending on which insurance company you take out cover with.

From year two, Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited may then receive an annual commission of between 8% and 10% of the premium for the time Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited remains the servicing adviser on the policy.

Our Financial Advisers will confirm the amount of commission Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited will receive a recommendation is provided to you.

Who do I contact with any complaints and/or disputes?

If you are not fully satisfied with our services or wish to make a complaint, please speak to your Financial Adviser in the first instance. If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction or you do not want to speak with your Financial Adviser, you may contact Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited directly as follows:

Complaints Officer

Long Burroughs

We will endeavour to resolve your problem openly and fairly and within a timely manner.

If you are unable to resolve your complaint with Long Burroughs Limited, you may refer it to Financial Services Complaints Limited (FSCL), of which Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited is a member. FSCL is an approved independent dispute resolution scheme which handles complaints against financial service providers, including insurance brokers.

FSCL is free to consumers and its decisions are binding on IANZ and Long Burroughs Limited (but not on you). Further information about FSCL is available from IANZ and/or from www.fscl.org.nz. You may contact FSCL directly on 0800 347 257

In some circumstances a dispute may arise between you and an insurer. In such circumstances your financial Adviser and Long Burroughs Financial Services Limited will assist you with details of the Insurer's Internal Dispute Resolution process and, if the dispute remains unresolved, access to the Insurer disputes resolution scheme. If the dispute proceeds, you should obtain legal advice from a qualified lawyer.
